SHEET PRODUCTS

Parlok has a long-standing tradition dating back to 1959 and extensive expertise in plastic products. We offer a wide selection of thousands of items designed to improve road safety and serve various other applications. Our products are manufactured efficiently and in an environmentally responsible manner.

In addition to supplying products to the commercial vehicle industry, we also provide sheet products made of high-density polyethylene (PE-HD) and polypropylene (PP) in various sizes for other plastic industry needs – all with fast delivery times.
